Troop 55 received an invitation to march with the Cross Roads Council's Marching Band and Flag Corp during the pre-race program of the Indianapolis 500. The pre-race program starts at 9:00am and has several dozen Marching Bands parade the full length of the track as the stands fill. Class A minus uniforms are a firm requirement for scouts and adults marching in the parade. The pre-race program ends 90 minutes before race time. This will enable the scouts attending time to get to their seats for the race.

Any scout in their school's marching band is invited to bring their instrument to play. We will bring our colors. If you're a band person this is a very special event.

This is a sun or rain event. It will only be cancelled for safety reasons; thunderstorms or a tornado watch. Everyone will be expected to march in their Class A minus regardless of the conditions. No hats or neckerchiefs are permitted these be left on the track and cause a car accident during the race. Ear protection for the scouts is required. The track is a very loud place; likely the loudest place you have ever been. Ear plugs are a minimum requirement. Headsets with sound protection and radio capability are recommended so you have ear protection and can listen on the radio to the track announcer. These will be left on the bus while we march and retrieved when we return to our bus to drop off our flags, pick-up our lunches and tickets for the race; a bag with your name is recommended.

There is a $100 fee ($15 transportation fee is included in this fee) for each scout and parent attending. THE TRANSPORTATION FEE IS WAIVED FOR BOTH SCOUT AND PARENT, IF THE PARENT IS DRIVING. Please contact Charles Hochstein (charles.hochstein@usps.gov)
