

Shenandoah River Canoe & Camping Trip
Permission Slip

When: May 12-13, 2018

Where: Shenandoah River – Harpers Ferry, WV

Time: Arrive at the St. Francis parking lot at 7 a.m. on Saturday, May 12, 2018

Return to St. Francis mid-afternoon on Sunday, May 13, 2018

We will be canoeing on the Shenandoah River just above Harpers Ferry, West Virginia. Paddlers wind their way down river for about 7 miles through the scenic Shenandoah Valley, nestled between the rolling Blue Ridge Mountains. Canoeing this scenic and mellow river includes navigating small Class I-II rapids, a great combination of relaxation and fun. We will be camping at Brunswick Family Campground in Brunswick, Maryland. Canoeing will start at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday afternoon for 2-3 hours, while Saturday evening will feature dinner by patrol and campfire skits. Prior to the start of canoeing, we will be setting up camp, eating lunch, and doing scout skills review.

We will bring our trailer with all troop and patrol equipment, and as always, meals are planned and prepared by patrols. Patrols are responsible for Saturday lunch and dinner, and Sunday breakfast. Scouts should either eat breakfast at home or bring a meal for the car on Saturday morning. Scouts may want to bring a snack to eat during the return trip on Sunday and /or money for a snack if the driver stop. Scouts should remember to protect themselves from mosquitos and other bugs by bringing appropriate spray, as well as extra pairs of dry clothes. Rain gear is always a good idea -- even if it doesn't rain, it is great wind protection.

There is an $65 fee ($20 transportation) for each scout and parent attending. THE TRANSPORTATION FEE IS WAIVED FOR BOTH SCOUT AND PARENT IF THE PARENT IS DRIVING. Price goes up to $75 if registration and payment are not received by May 10, 2018.
